of patrolmen nor teachers should be increased this year. We meert in the next place, that a delier this year, will go as far in supplying the necessaries of tife-as $1.25 did has year. We assert thirdly, that if a man receives as many dollars of wages this season as a two-twentonth ago, that is a equivalent to an enhancement of his companion of loss 20 per cent. We claim in the 5 orth place, that a reduction this sammer of, my one-fitch of the number of deliary he obtained last summer, in practice is not a reduction of pay, simply because he can buy as much tion of pay, simply because he can buy as much for the remaining four-fifths as he could a year ago for the whole five-fifths. that refused to receive it. The affrest was palpable, and Mr. Clay showed only a proper spirts in resenting it as he did.

It is assumed by almost everybody that the British Government will deavon the acts of its officers, dismiss them from service on the West India station, and make speedy and ample reparation for the outrages. I do not feel uses that this will be done. The commanding offer of the Cuban squadron is not more than sixteen or tremty days removed from Downley street. It would be absurd to say that he is acting without orders, and those orders cannot be more than a mouth or two old. Now why should they have been given if it was not resolved to vindicate the enter cement of them.

The New York Courter & Enquirer makes a probable suggestion, which is, that some time ago, Mr. Buchanan requested the transfer of the British fleet from the coast o. Arrica to the vicinity of Cuba, which was compiled with, a seller to the Government of Willett's Point, at more than double its value. It may or may not be inviduous and aminst be remark that the Governor had the selling and the baying of the Governor had the solding and the buying of these perfection.

Laying saide the question of responsibility, it seems that the netual plunder of the Government in the latter case, was greater than has been reported. The seller of the property five years before the transfer to the Government, testificed said to greater to the Government, and that the property is worth $7.0,000, the Treasury was plucked in the sum of $136,000. This was a heavy per centage on $200,000. Floyd, however, will get aff without consure suche did in the Fort Snelling case.

The investigation upon Gen, Collims, Olerk of the House, has not been concluded. Seventy-sevan witnesses have been examined; but the committee want more yet. They have obtained leaw-to-continue the investigation and report neak winter. Hunter' Committee on the two door keepers, Darling and Hackney, have reported a mass of sestimony, but no resolutions. They say they have no jurisdiction. In the case of the Philadelphia Bank bribery, it is proved that Allibone, the say nedding President, paid Thomas Miller, the Postmader of the city at the time, $23,000 for negetiating the sale to the Government of the Bank's preperty for the site of a post office. The Treasury was swindled in this case out of somewhat mere than $150,000, as the property was worth less than $150,000. This particular robberry occurred towards the last of Pierce's reign. The Mormon news last received is doubtless "bogus." It was evidently manufactured for Washington consumption. The Administration is draid to ask for all it wants and therefore resorts to this trickery to obtain the mormona sums which the House could be induced to vote upon the contingue; of war alone. It would be extravagantly elly to, believe that General Johnston would send such messages as came from Fort Leavenworth by telegraph, by work-

THE NEW CITEBUS CONTROL OF SAME ASSESSED. contains the following leading article, under the head of "Unpunished Orline." It is worthy of an attentive perusal at this time, is being probably, a faithful picture of the moral condition of the Crescent City:

For patience and forbearance in telerations of and cell doors, the citizens of New Orleas may claim precedence of all the world Whether or not with a Christian spirit or with a Christian sense of duty, they have assured borne with wrongs, outrages and insults with a most telerant and most charitable disposition. When smitten mon the right chape a most tolerant and most charitable disposition. When smitten upon the right check, they live, turned the left, and when the cost of order was stolen they have freely given up the clock of law also. If Things have forced them a mile out of their way they have cheerfully gone another. If office, emolument and influence have been stolen by conspirators, they have piled homors upon the heads of the thieves.
If bands of midnight conspirators have made suffrage a harce and freedom a mockery, public tolerance has sanctioned the assumed power and given up the public rule into their hands.
Violence has won the stake that rascals played for, ant our patient and forbearing community has confirmed the triumph of error and assessination by its acquiescence.
Louisianisms and citizens of New Orleans, we would be the last to acknowledge the black dis-the last of our blood and our breath, to defind our city against any unjust imputations. But the truth is open—palaphle—plainlas noon-deg, that scores of the a steeped in orine particle our attrests in broad daylight, laughing at law and etting our tribunals at atter defiance. Men whose hands are red with the blood of nurder albow? To a struct corners, flaint the badges of office in our faces, threaten as by deed and word, bonet of their former rescalities and arru proudly under the load of infamy they bear. The sight of boness men is offended every day with assuming who should have swung on the gallows long ago, or been son-signed to the order of the load, black list of orines—unpunched orines—that have been snow its abettors and its chief actors. But all efforts to punish such crimes have heretofore been thwarted. Association, cunning, fraud, ferror, partisanship, private pledges or something elle have always interposed to shelter coundrels from the avenging hand of the law. How long must our fair city continue to groan under the load of unpunished crime? Is a repetition of all these outrages to be invited by a serious to mustake the country of the property of the country of the count are been supported by the support of support of the support of support o Ham Tiers in Canada.—Isaac Buchanan, of Hamilton, C. W., has declared in the Canadian Parliament that there are five hundred thousand persons in Canada. without employment and without money—a statement which is greatly exaggerated; but there is no doubt that much depression and distress prevails. It was expected that the opening of navigation would bring relief, but the very low price of wheat and flour so diminished returns, that the expected relief is very imperfectly realized. ed and for sale by addlery Hardw SCOTT, KEEN & CO., CHELL'S "I" PEN-FOR SALE B)
